

BEHOLDING THE GOD OF TRANSCENDENT MAJESTY & IMMANENT MERCY

————— Taught by Bruce A. Ware —————

November 16th – 18th @ LBC

————— FREE TO ATTEND —————

Session 1: Friday, 6:30-8pm | Session 2: Saturday 4:30-5:30pm

Session 3: Saturday, 6:30-7:30pm (Free Dinner Provided Saturday Evening 5:30-6:30pm)

Session 4: Sunday, 9:00-10:00am, During the Teaching Service

Join us as we focus on different attributes of God based primarily on passages from Isaiah, showing the importance of seeing first, God's transcendent and independent perfection, then marveling at His kind, forgiving, restoring mercy and grace.

Bruce A. Ware was born and raised in Spokane, WA, by Christian parents who were committed to Christ, to missions, and to the work of their local church. Bruce was educated at Whitworth College (BA), Western Seminary (MDiv, ThM), the University of Washington (MA), and Fuller Theological Seminary (PhD). He has taught theology in several leading evangelical colleges and seminaries for over 30 years. Since 1998 he has served at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky where he is the T. Rupert and Lucille Coleman Professor of Christian Theology, and chairman of the Department of Christian Theology. He has served as the president of the Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood (1999-2003), and as the president of the Evangelical Theological Society (2009). Bruce and his wife of 39 years, Jodi, have two daughters, Bethany and Rachel, and three grandchildren, Ella Rose, Gavin Edwards, and Ainsley Kate – the children of Owen and Bethany Strachan. He and Jodi love drives in the country, hikes in the woods, walks on the beach, time with their daughters and grandchildren, along with reading and good music.

For more info contact David Anderson at david@littletonbiblechapel.org